

GRANT CONTENT MODEL (SAMPLE)

Content fields, requirements, and style

GRANT NAME

Jane Doe Memorial Trust
Family Research Grant

100 CHAR MAX // REQUIRED.

Use the complete grant name. No length limit, as many grants have extended official names.

SHORT GRANT NAME

Jane Doe Family Grant

25 CHAR MAX // REQUIRED.

Write a short version of the name to appear on listings or the homepage, where the full title is too long. Make sure it reflects the grant accurately, but uses plain language.

SHORT SUMMARY

This four-year, nonrenewable grant supports researchers studying the impact of mental health on family stability.

100 CHAR MAX // REQUIRED.

Use a complete sentence, and explain the focus area of the grant. This content may appear independent of the rest of the grant's content, so make sure it can stand alone.

YEARS AWARDED

2013-2017

4-CHAR YEARS // REQUIRED.

Enter the full year (e.g., 2016) the grant begins and ends in the fields provided.

GRANTEE ORGANIZATION

Sample Lab at Awesome University

50 CHAR MAX // REQUIRED.

Select the name of the research lead from the drop-down list. If the person doesn't yet have a bio in our system, enter that first.

LEAD RESEARCHER

Elena Leffner, PhD

50 CHAR MAX // REQUIRED.

Select the name of the organization receiving the grant from the drop-down list. If the organization is not yet in the system, add them first so they appear here.

ABOUT THIS GRANT

The Jane Doe Memorial Trust coordinates the efforts underway by multiple agencies to reduce mental health disparities both within and outside of the United States, with the goal of sharing research, techniques, and understanding across organizations.

UNLIMITED LENGTH // REQUIRED.

Explain the research being done, and focus on the core goals of that research first.

Use short paragraphs and, if the content is lengthy, subheads.
